

Confidentiality Agreement For Interns

Due to your access to confidential information, all interns must sign this agreement. "Confidential information" means any information of a secret or confidential nature relating to the internship workplace.

Confidential information may include, but is not limited to, the following: trade secrets, proprietary information, customer information, customer lists, methods, plans, documents, data, drawings, manuals, notebooks, reports, models, inventions, formulas, processes, software, information systems, contracts, negotiations, strategic planning, proposals, business alliances, and training materials.

In connection with being intern in Erovoutika, I agree to the following:

I have read and understand the above definition of "confidential information." I agree that I will not at any time, both during and after my internship, communicate or disclose confidential information to any person, corporation, or entity.

I further recognize and agree that while in a Erovoutika internship, I may become aware of nonpublic information of a personal nature about employees or associates, including, without limitation, actions, omissions, statements, or personally identifiable medical, family, financial, social, behavioral, or other personal or private information. I will not disclose any such information that I learn in a Erovoutika internship to any other person or entity, unless required by applicable law or legal process.
